

PIKEVILLE

Fence Wright, Supt.

The new Pike County Board of Education unanimously re-elected Supt. F. Wright for the next four years. Mr. Wright for the end of his present term will have wiped out the large indebtedness which the county had incurred. Last year 26 modern school houses have been erected and ten new ones will be built within the next year, this giving every district in the county an up-to-date building.

Mack Hatfield in Jail.

Mack Hatfield, youthful slayer of his father, was turned over to the Pike county authorities and is now in jail. Young Hatfield did not escape to the woods following the shooting as was at first surmised but went to the home of his brother on Blackberry creek in Pike county. The brother immediately turned him over to the Pike county authorities.

J. L. McCoy Sells Interest.

On account of ill health, J. L. McCoy, former editor of the Pike County News, has sold his interest in the business. Col. McCoy is now undergoing treatment in a New York hospital. His interest was taken over by Henry S. Barnett, who was closely associated with him for many years.

Buys Lots.

Zach Justice purchased about six acres of land from J. H. Hudson, adjoining the new Music addition on Kentucky avenue. Mr. Justice has engaged an engineer to lay off in town lots, work to begin immediately.

Miss Lillian Ferguson, popular young lady from Roanoke, has again returned to Pikeville as Miss McComb's milliner. — News.

PRESTONSBURG

Gets Life Sentence.

Jack Sherman was given a life term in the penitentiary last week after the deliberation of one night by the jury for the murder of Dodge Hunt. It is said that nine of the jurors were for a life sentence from the beginning and the other three soon made it unanimous.

Dodge Hunt disappeared from Emma where he had been visiting relatives on January 13, 1921. His body was found in the woods about two weeks later hidden behind a log and partly covered with chunks of wood with the rear of his head shot off with a shotgun. The gun had been fired so close that the wads entered the wound. Jack Sherman, his own nephew, had left with Dodge Hunt on the morning of the 13th for a rabbit hunt and had returned in the afternoon alone saying that his uncle Dodge had gone on Beaver to his work. Sherman, however, was rather nervous and was soon suspected of having killed his uncle. It was noticed that Sherman was spending $20 bills rather profusely. It was known that Dodge Hunt carried $1,000 or $1,200 on his person in bills mostly of this denomination. As soon as the body was found Sherman was arrested and lodged in jail. It was thought at first that he might have had an accomplice and two of his brothers-in-law were arrested. They were released soon and have in no way been implicated in this foul murder, one of the most heinous committed in the annals of Floyd county.

Hunt was a widower. Sherman has a wife and four children.

Elect Superintendent.

The County Board of Education met here and elected H. N. Cooley superintendent of Floyd county schools. Mr. Cooley has served in this capacity for more than two years and has devoted himself to the work of this important office. It is thought by reason of his experience he will be better qualified to serve during the next term, and it is devoutly wished by the thoughtful that he will now bring the schools of Floyd county to a higher point of efficiency. Let all the good people assist him.

Aged Citizen Dies.

On February 21, 1921, the death angel visited the home of Mrs. Louisa Burchett, of Dewey, and took her home to rest. She was born in Pike county March 4, 1838, being 83 years, 11 months and 21 days of age. She was married to Mr. Jesse P. Burchett of Floyd county on the 9th day of April, 1855. To this union were born nine children, seven girls and two boys, Mrs. Belle Richmond of Prestonsburg; Mrs. William Roberts of Dewey; Mrs. George T. Burchett of Dewey; Mrs. Henry Auxier of Auxier; William S. Burchett, who died at the age of three years and six months; Mrs. George Fannin of Dewey; Mrs. John Brannan of Cliff; Mrs. Albert Akers of Dewey; and Mrs. Will Hall, who died on July 5, 1919. Mrs. Burchett became a member of the M. E. Church South at the age of sixteen years and always lived a devoted Christian life.

BETWEEN THE TWO BANKS

LOUISA, KENTUCKY

MADGE

A real revival campaign for nearly four weeks has closed at Gallup. The church which had been lulled to ease in the unconscious sleep of formality, which is so prevalent in the churches everywhere today, has been awakened and is very much alive.

Rev. Ora Sparks, the pastor of this charge, is to be congratulated for securing the assistance of the Rev. Wm. Kelley, conference evangelist, who has faith and simple trust in God's ability to bring to pass every promise laid down in His holy word.

When Bro. Kelley arrived here on Feb. 2, he was met with many discouraging reports with regard to the utter impossibility of holding a successful meeting at this place. But God who sent Moses to deliver the children of Israel from bondage knew where to find a man that would put Gallup church on the map again.

By the untiring energy and willingness of Bro. Kelley to trust God for a real revival the blessings came which have transformed the church and the community. The gospel story was preached in its purity and simplicity and it brought deep conviction upon the souls of sinners and seekers came through shouting in the "good old-fashioned way." Eight or nine believers were sanctified. The total number converted, restored and sanctified was seventy-five. There were about forty-five accessions to the church, with more yet to come in.

There was a steady increase in interest and attendance from the very beginning until the closing night when amid a crowded house eighty-five believers partook of the communion of the Lord's Supper.

All the expenses of the meeting were promptly met. The following amounts were raised during the meeting: for Bro. Kelley $130.00; for new lamps in church $17.00; for new song books $11.00; also the church contributed $26.00 to assist in sending a sick girl to Riverview hospital at Louisa.

It was my privilege and pleasure to attend this meeting where God so wonderfully blessed His word and where he heard and answered prayer.

I want to say for Bro. Kelley I have never seen anyone whom I thought carried a greater burden for souls or who was more self-sacrificing in the work. He spared not himself for the salvation of lost souls.
